Note: One of the most important things to understand about a story is what the characters think or feel about each other. Choose a character from the story and write his or her name at the top. Then choose three other characters in the story and write their names in the first column. In the middle column, write a few words to show how your selected character feels or thinks about the other person. In the third column, write a few words to show how the character feels or thinks about the one you have selected.
