The Present Day (characters, setting, events)	Flashback (character, setting, events)

Note: Sometimes a story will begin in the present and then “flash” back to an earlier time. A character might be remembering something or we might see a different character who is related in some way to the present day character. In column 1, write notes describing the present day. Who are the characters? What is the setting like? What is happening? In column 2, do the same for the “flashback.” Be sure to be specific about the time and setting for both.
