

Selected Response Question

Directions: Rephrase the following according to the directions given, and choose the response that best corresponds to the necessary changes to the original sentence. Keep the meaning of the sentence as close to the original as possible, maintaining natural phrasing, the requirements of standard written English, and logical and concise construction.

1. Subsequent references to the man are absent; this has always been considered puzzling and conspicuous.

Begin with The absence

- a. the man has always
 - b. references have always
 - c. puzzling has always
 - d. the man considered
 - e. the man puzzled
-