

Open Sentence Combining

Combine the following sets of sentences into one. Compare your sentence with those written by other students in your group.

Set One

1. There was a car accident.
2. More than twenty cars were involved.
3. There was fog on the highway.
4. The cars ran into one another.
5. The cars couldn't move.
6. Rescue vehicles had a hard time getting there.
7. Sirens blared and lights flashed.
8. The accident injured a dozen people.

Set Two

1. The wedding was over.
2. The guests were tired.
3. The guests were happy.
4. The bride and groom were ready to leave.
5. The guests got into their cars.
6. Their cars filled the parking lot.
7. They laughed and talked.
8. Suddenly the parking lot was empty.

Set Three

1. My desk is cluttered.
 2. It is covered with papers.
 3. It is covered with books.
 4. My assignment is somewhere on the desk.
 5. I can't find my assignment.
 6. My teacher will be angry if I turn my assignment in late.
 7. My teacher will lower my grade on the assignment.
 8. I wish I could find my assignment.
-